

HYDROCALC INSTALLATION GUIDE

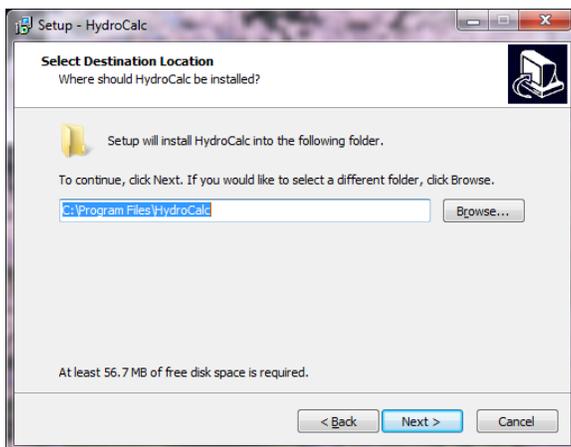

Recommended: Install HydroCalc as administrator to minimize installation problems. If administrator privileges cannot be obtained, consult the local IT administrator.

To begin installation, right click on the setup file and left click on “Run as administrator”

The installation process should begin.

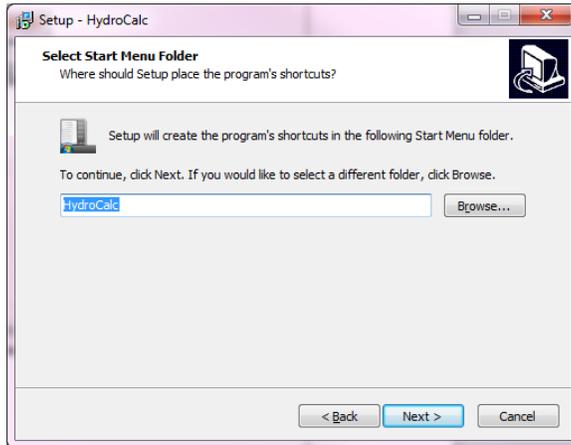

Left click on the “Next” button.

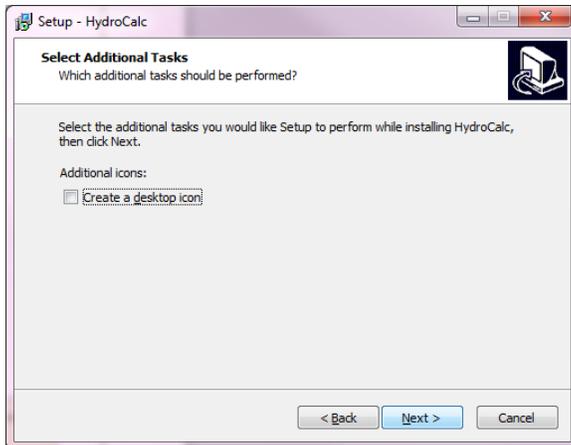

Default settings are recommended throughout the installation process in order to minimize installation problems.

Left click on “Next” to continue.

HYDROCALC INSTALLATION GUIDE

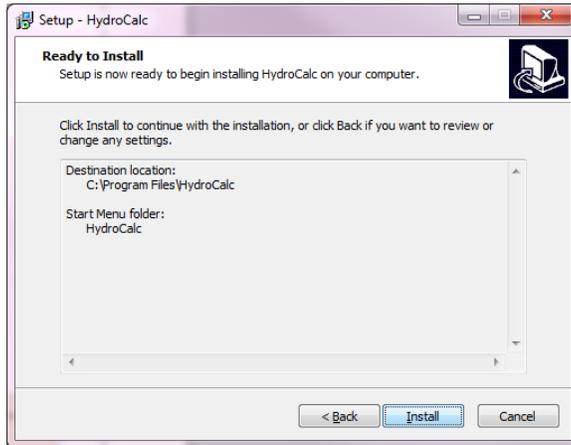

Left click on “Next” to preserve the default name and to continue the installation process.

Optional setting to place a desktop icon.

Left click on “Next” to continue.

HYDROCALC INSTALLATION GUIDE

Review the chosen settings. Once reviewed, either choose the Back button to go back and change a setting or choose Install to install the program.

Optional setting to launch the program immediately or uncheck the box to finish installation without launching the program.